Madrid, February 27. N. S.

THE Count de Hartcourt, Ambaſſador from his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty, is arrived here, and has been Complimented by the Introductor of Ambaſſadors. Don Antonio D'Ubilla is made Secretary of the Univerſal Diſpatches. The Galeons from the Havana are expected about the latter end of April; and in July a Fleet will ſail for New-Spain.

Dantzicke, March 11. Our laſt Letters from Warſaw bring us theſe Particulars of the Proceedings of thoſe Gentlemen who having ſeparated themſelves from the Cardinal Primate and the reſt of the Rokotz, came with the Kings Commiſſioners to Bleny, and afterwards repaired thither to make their Submiſſions to his Majeſty; That ſome Articles were firſt propoſed, as being neceſſary for ſettling the Peace of the Kingdom, and aſſerting their Priviledges and Liberty; which being agreed upon by the Aſſembly, and conſented to by the King's Commiſſioners, an Inſtrument was drawn up and ſigned in the Name of the Palatinates from whom they were deputed, deſiring his acceptance of the ſame, and acknowledging him for their Lawful Soveraign, and withall aſſuring him of their Duty and Loyalty. The 3d of this month they came to Warſaw, and on the 5th they attended his Majeſty, having at their Head the Biſhop of Kiow, the Palatine of Bles, and the Great Treaſurer of the Crown; Their Audience was very ſolemn; The Biſhop on behalf of the Senate, and the Staroſt of Strabowic for the Nobility and Gentry of Poland, made Speeches ſuitable to the Occaſion, and were anſwered by the Great Chancellor of the Crown in the Kings Name, after which they Kiſſed his Majeſties Hand. The King left Warſaw the 8th Inſtant, and came that night to Stum near Mariembourg, into which laſt place he intended to make his Entry as this day, and to be here on Monday next, againſt which time all things are preparing for his Reception.

Vienna, March 8. The Count de Stirum is gone hence for Poland, being to command the German Forces in that Kingdom. The Emperor's Miniſters haſten the Preparations for the next Campagne, in order to bring their Armies early into the Field. We hear the Commiſſioners ſent by the Duke of Lorraine to take poſſeſſion of that Dutchy, are arrived at Nancy. Some Commiſſioners are likewiſe ſent by the Emperor to the Briſgau, to take Poſſeſſion of the Places to be reſtored by France, who, we hear, are arrived there, in order to acquit themſelves of that Commiſſion. Our laſt Advices from Hungary ſay, the States of Tranſilvania were ſtill aſſembled at Hermanſtadt, to provide for the Security of their Frontiers, and the Supplies demanded of them towards the Subſiſtence of the Forces in thoſe Parts.

Hamburg, March 18. We hear from Berlin, That Mr. Stepney, His Majeſty of Great-Britain's Envoy Extraordinary to the Elector of Brandenburg, arrived there the 14th inſtant. The ſame Advices add, That his Electoral Highneſs deſigned on the 20th of this month to ſet out thence for Pruſſia.

Paris, March 19. On the 16th Inſtant my Lord Portland was Viſited by the Ambaſſadors of Portugal, Venice, and Savoy. The 17th the Prince of Conti returned the Viſit his Excellency made him incognito before his Entry. The ſame day his Excellency went to Viſit the Duke of Maine and the Count de Toulouze at the Arſenal, with 6 Coaches and 2 Horſes each, filled with the Gentlemen who immediately belong to his Excellency, his 12 Pages being before and behind his Coach, and 50 Footmen walking before. The 18th his Excellency went to Verſailles, and had Audience of the Princeſs of Conde and the Dutcheſs of Bourbon, the Princeſs Dowager of Conti and the Dutcheſs of Maine. The French Court went this day to Marli. My Lord Portland is going to the Houſe of the Prince d'Armagnac at Royaumont, for 2 or 3 days.

Bruſſels, March 20. The Duke of Holſtein, General of Horſe, is dangerouſly ill. The Prince of Vaudemont intends next Wedneſday to ſet out for Italy, and will go by Paris. Our Advices from Madrid ſay, the King of Spain has been indiſpoſed, but freſher Letters inform us, that his Majeſty is on the mending hand.

Hague, March 21. N. S. The Great Council of War which has been aſſembled here ſome days, is now broke up, having determined the Affairs that were before them. The Sieurs Pleſſen and Lenthe, Ambaſſadors from the King of Denmark, had yeſterday their Audience of Leave of the States with the uſual Ceremonies. Don Quiros, Ambaſſador from the King of Spain, is gone hence to Bruſſels, and is expected back in a few weeks. Yeſterday the Sieur Heemskirke made his Report in the Aſſembly of the States-General of his Embaſſies to the Imperial and Ottoman Courts, and will in a day or two go hence on his Embaſſy to France.

Dublin, March 9. Yeſterday her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Anne of Denmarke's Regiment of Foot arrived here from Highlake, as did alſo a Troop of Major General Levingſton's Regiment of Horſe, the reſt being hourly expected.

Plimouth, March 15. Yeſterday came in here the Provincial, Tho. Burly Maſter, and the Mary of Topſham, John Kingſton Maſter, from Cadiz, laden with Wine and Fruit, from whence they parted in Company of 9 other Engliſh Merchant Ships homeward bound, but outſailing them left them off of Lisbon.

Barnſtaple,
